

STATE

COUNTY

TOWN OR VICINITY

✓
CONNECTICUT

New London

Norwichtown ✓

12 Mediterranean Lane 7p
3d

INDEX NUMBER

MONUMENT

CONN, 6. NORT, 17-

Charlton Cottage

REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE

H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO.

CONN-246

History - Originally a hideaway
for Captain Richard Charlton.PUBLISHED
PHOTOGRAPHS

Built in its present form before 1812, probably in the last quarter of the eighteenth century by his son, Samuel Charlton. Present owner, Mrs. Ozias Dodge; present occupant, Raymond B. Case, who has extensively restored the house from a nearly ruinous condition since about 1945.

PUBLISHED DRAWINGS

(over)

Description - Frame, clapboards, 18' x 29' (five bays), one-and-a-half stories, gable roof, central chimney type plan, two fireplaces, vertical boarding on interior walls, simple wood detail.

References - Ada R. Chase, "History in towns: Norwich, Connecticut," Antiques, June 1961, pp. 560-565. HABS Photo-Data Book prepared by Osmund R. Overby, October 1960.

Author of Card - Osmund R. Overby, Architect, National Park Service, 143 South Third Street, Philadelphia 6, Pa.-- March 1961